

Where did the name "The Strangely Green Chicken Co." come from?

Several years ago, while in college, a group of friends - Conan, Gunthor, Zeus, Special Agent Donut and others - did some charity events (in the UK), and we - actually Gunthor - came up with a team name: The Strangely Green Chicken team. The name has stuck around with us since.

When I created CleanUp! 1.x and 2.0, I did not have a company of my own so when I needed a company name I used the name The Strangely Green Chicken Co. That's all. I now have my own domain (stevengould.org) and, from CleanUp! 3.0 onwards have started using that instead.
